

Sidney Saddle Club Stall Regulations and Lease Agreement

1. You must be a Sidney Saddle Club Member to rent a stall and we reserve the right to refuse service to anyone.
2. A deposit will be collected per stall and will be returned when the lease is terminated, if the stall is clean and rent is paid in full.
3. Rent is due in advance. A $3 per day late fee will be charged on rent that is more than 5 days overdue. At the end of a two week grace period, the sheriff will be notified.
4. You are responsible for the upkeep and maintenance of your stall. Please fix or replace anything that might break or be damaged while you are leasing.
5. We are not responsible for accidents or injuries to self or animals. Feed, bedding and tack kept at the club will be at your own risk.
6. No studs are allowed. Animals must be current on veterinary recommended vaccinations.
7. You are responsible for feeding, watering and exercising your animals on a regular basis.
8. Stalls must be cleaned on a regular basis. It is recommended it is done at least 5 times a week.
9. Removal of bedding and manure is your responsibility, but currently we have been privileged to have a manure trailer. Please deposit only manure and bedding into the trailer as it is going to an organic farm. No trash please.
10. Any abandoned feed or bedding will be claimed by the club.
11. Please report any infractions to the stall manager. Infractions of any rules will result in a monetary penalty at the discretion of the stall manager.
